seniors

Making your way in the world today
Takes everything you got.
Taking a break from all your worries
Sure would help a lot.

Wouldn't you like to get away?
Sometimes you wanna go . . .

Where everybody knows you name
And they're always glad you came
You want to be where you can see
Our troubles are all the same.
You want to be where everybody
knows your name.

You want to go where people know
People are all the same
You want to go where everybody
knows your name.

— Cheers theme song

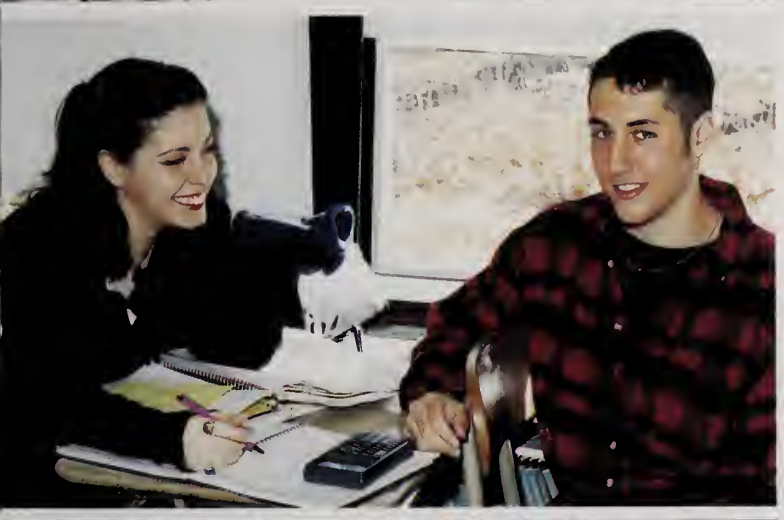
It's over!
In a few short months the class of 1996 will be heading off in different directions. We will be going our separate ways. But what will we be leaving behind? Homeroom, pinkslips, the student parking lot, Ti-82's? Thankfully, yes. But the incredibly high spirit of the class of 1996 will never be forgotten. Through all of the class activities, including the all important proms, the class of 96's flame will never be extinguished.

seniors



Has the class's flame always been steady? Have we always gotten along? We often complain about living in a place where we all know each other's names, yet we often find comfort in knowing the people around us. It is those people who have grown up with us and pushed us to achieve. Those people who helped mold us into the unique young adults that we now are. Those who have seen us change from anxious freshman, getting lost on the first day of classes, to confident seniors, crossing the auditorium stage, diploma in hand.

The Gymnasium glowed under the bright illumination of a twinkling chandelier, as The Junior Prom was held on the evening of May 6, 1995. Through the hard working efforts of many volunteers from the Senior Class, the gym had been transformed into a unique Monte Carlo setting, complete with a red carpet, an ice sculpture and large figures of tuxedo men. The faculty chaperones selected Liz Stavis as Prom Queen and her court included Jodi Kraus, Darcy Smith, Renee Owens, Jillian Schenkler, and Joey Siegel as the Prom King. The night passed by all too quickly, and we found ourselves dancing to the last number of the evening: Led Zeppelin's ''Thank You''. Unfortunately, our Junior Prom would now be remembered by pictures in our photo albums and cherished in our memories for a lifetime.

"Our memories of yesterday will last a lifetime.
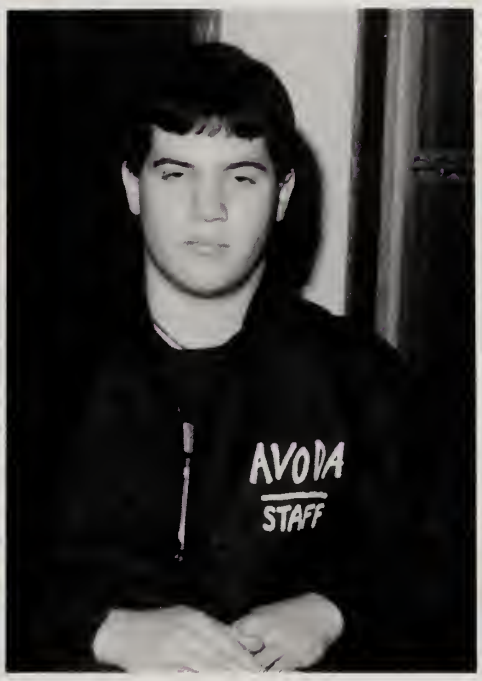
We'll take the best,
forget the rest,
And someday we'll find . . .

These are the best of times."
— The Best of Times
Styx



It's amazing to recall our fears on our first day of high school. The time has gone by so quickly.

seniors

"Who knows how long this will last
Now we've come so far, so fast
Somewhere back there in the dust
That same small town in each of us.

I need to remember this,
So baby give me just one kiss
And let me take a long last look Before we say goodbye."

— End of the Innocence
Don Henley

seniors

It's been a great four years. Four years of development, knowledge, and friendship. We have grown up. The class of 1996 will soon be saying goodbye. But we will still have right now . . . we still have this moment.

"And in the end, on dreams we will depend."

— Dreams

This yearbook is dedicated to a man who has been a truly inspirational figure in the lives of Sharon High students. He has mastered the Snake, sat under the Bo Tree, and even harmonized with the Tuvan Monks. Mr. Murray fills us with his enthusiasm, outlook on life, and neverending encouragement. His spirits are always high whether he is teaching his contagious love of English, watching the field hockey team, or helping the youths of Sharon in the sport where he was once a legend, basketball. However, the other side of Mr. Murray is the caring teacher and friend, with his hi-fives, NCAA tournament pools, and hellos in the hallway. Mr. Murray also spends time after school with students, his or not, and even finds time to sometimes meet with students for lunch or dinner. We would like to thank Mr. Murray for everything he has done for us and been to us, far exceeding any contract expectation. Mr. Murray, you have put your dent in each of us through your true care of teaching, and we can not say enough to thank such a gentleman and a scholar.

Constance Hyder has been a dedicated member of the Language Department for eighteen years. She has taught her students the ever-present Subjunctivo. She is a concerned teacher who tries to make learning in room 210 fun, as is shown by her interest in their love lives. However, she goes above and beyond that with the Class of 1996. As frightened freshmen, we were welcomed by her guidance as our class advisor. Volunteering her afternoons and her classroom to the class (of 1996), she has been very supportive. And although there have been days when we did not get along, one could never question the glint in her eye, when she was asked who her favorite class was. This support crested in planning "A night in Monte Carlo." While one could hear her utterings and mutterings, one could not mistake her excitement. In her eyes the Class of 1996 could do no wrong.

It is for these reasons that we would like this yearbook to show our appreciation of Sra. Hyder. She has been much more than a Spanish teacher to the Class of 1996, she has been a good friend and great class advisor. What will she do without us? Gracias y Hasta Luego Sra.!

boys' tennis team

The boys' Tennis Team racked up another impressive year, completing their undefeated season by winning the Division II State Championship. The boys rolled through the Hockomock League, extending their streak of consecutive league wins to at least 12 years. You'd have to go back to the school archives to find out the last time they actually lost to a Hockomock League opponent! The juniors were able to take control, led by the strong efforts of Adam Harris, Eric Yecies, Dan Levine, Joey Sigal, and Ken Chavez. The two doubles teams established themselves as the best in the South, and with the tandem play of Dan Levine and Joey Sigal they were able to reach the State Individual Championship. The entire team is returning, and they are all hungry to repeat their efforts to defend their title as State Champions.

Rebecca Schneiderman (co-captain), Andrea Shuman, and Amanda Bourne (co-captain).

At the beginning of last season, the girls tennis team was uncertain of its standing. A Hockomock stronghold, the team had lost a few valuable players. However they maintained a solid record throughout last season — one that was enough to secure their almost annual position in the state quarter finals. The team found itself playing worthy opponents, losing to Needham to close out a great season. The team is enthusiastically looking forward to this years outing, with most of last years members returning. Co-captains Rebecca Schneiderman and Amanda Bourne will lead the way as first doubles, followed by senior Andrea Shuman. Best of luck to the team and coach Cronin.

The Boys and Girls 1995 Spring track teams got off to a fast start, leaving the competition in the dust. The teams have shown improvement over the past few years and have grown in numbers and ability. This is one of Sharon High's teams to keep a watchful eye on.

The '95 boys team, led by Zach Dewherst, James Klos, Duane Dunn, and Scott Bluestein had an incredible season. Finishing with an 8-2 record, the team came close to being the League champions. Klos and Brian Stanislaus placed in the top three in the Hockomock League. Scott Bluestein, Sean Hawkins, and Ross Krachey also performed exceptionally. The team is enthusiastic about the 1996 season.

The '95 girls team, led by Mary Reichman, Ashley Villani, Chrissy Connors, and Lauren Santoli also had a great season. Once again, Villani finished high up in the Hockomock League, and Chrissy Connors played an essential part in the team's victories. The girls team has grown a lot over the years and guarantees a great 1996 season.

Both teams would like to extend a very special thanks to their great coaches, especially Head Coach Norris.

girls softball

This year's softball season was one of rebuilding. After having lost many seniors, the team was young and fairly inexperienced. Despite these obstacles, the team worked very hard as a unit, under the leadership of co-captains Michelle Sabbag and Jill Flannery. Daily dedication and team spirit at practice continued to improve the team's game. Strong effort and ability was seen in the catcher-pitcher combination of Shira Levine and Erica Epro. Strong hitting skills were demonstrated by Naomi Dershewitz and Jessica Shelton. Although the teams record was not a strong one, we expect to see continued improvement next season. Good luck to captains Erica and Shira, and with the continued guidance of Coach Regan success is inevitable.

The 1995 baseball team played well under the excellent leadership of co-captains Josh Egan and Mike Wall, as well as coach Peckham. The team was topped off by Lee Mish pitching and Richie Miller, behind home base. The season highlight was the trip to Cooperstown, New York, where the team played Mansfield. The team looks forward to returning team members Craig Aframe, Roee Rubenstein, Marc Schloss and captain Jon Steinberg. Best of Luck to the 1996 team and to coach Peckham.

After not-so-great seasons the previous two years, the Junior Varsity team played well to chalk up an impressive record. Under the guidance of coach "Chief" LaChapelle and captain Phil Jordan, the team not only improved but shows great promise for the 1996 season. Excellent playing by Billy Hershman, Phil Jordan, Johnnie Walker and Adam Watstein brought excitement and chatter to the field.

Although their record did not show it, this years golf team showed tremendous improvement. Under the watchful eye of coach Pane, the team finished strong and beat the defending state champs. The team was led by seniors Craig Aframe, Dan Brown, Yan Katz, Captain Andy Mann and David Noble. Next years team will be led by Juniors Jeff Cohen, Jason Abrams, Steve Nicholas, and Freshman Joe Milbury. The young team will definitely be a force to be reckoned with.

Seniors: Sitting: left to right: Seth Nickinson and Jeff Schoman. Standing: left to right: Patric Sullivan (tri-captn.), Randy Zamcheck (tri-captn.), Darren Vasa (tri-captn.), and Steve Rubi

In the wake of two Hockomock League titles, the boys varsity soccer team had much to defend. Tri-captains Randy Zamcheck, Darren Vasa, and Patrick Sullivan led the team in a season that Coach Howie called a ''rebuilding year''. Plagued with injuries, the team fought through the season, and unlike most previous years, beat rival Foxboro in both meetings. Seth Nickinson, Steve Rubin, and late arriving Jeff Schoman continued the soccer team's tradition of strong senior leadership. The junior skill of Brian Doherty, Brian Potter, Stu MacDonald, and Alex Schindelar promises a bright future for the team.

The 1995 season was very successful for the girl's soccer team. Coach John Medeiros trained his team to work hard, both mentally and physically, and to play their best. Backed with a strong sense of determination and the will to win, the girl's finished the season with a strong record in the Hockomock League. For the third year in a row, the team made it to the State Tournament where they lost to Nauset in a shoot out. Co-captains Danielle DiNapoli and Nicole Sullivan, with senior Shira Levine, wish the team a championship season in 1996.

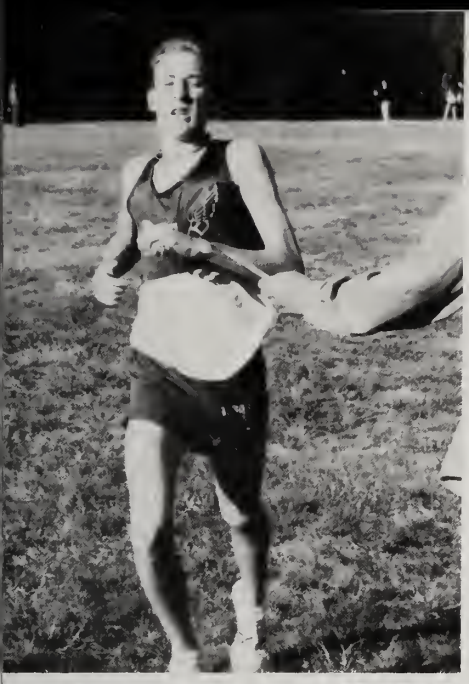
Boys Cross Country Team; bottom row, left to right: Ron Goldstein, Jeff Dell (captain), Jarec Van Vaerenwyck (captain), and Shane Van Vaerenwyck. middle row: Vibhav Rangarajan, Matt Slobodkin, Ravi Mehta, Jamie Mann, Neal Rosenberg, and Mike Sudhalter. top row: Coach Norris, Jason Van Vaerenwyck, Eric Fireman, Ross Krachey, Danny Brundage, Ben Levitt, Steve Schneider, Stu Karp, and Assistant Coach Griggs.



The boys cross-country team led by co-captains Jared Van Vaerenewyck and Jeff Dell has had one of their best seasons in years. The team swept the Hockomock League with an incredible 8-0 record. With support from the only other senior, Ronnie Goldstein, and the amazing juniors Ross Krachey, Ben Levitt, and Eric Fireman, the team should certainly clinch the league title. After the South Shore tournament, they plan to run-over their competitors, winning the State Tournament. After this season, Coach Norris might finally be content enough to move to the sunny island he's always talked about.

The girls cross-country team is having an amazing season. Led by the strong leadership of Captain Jess Zelfand, the team has risen to top standings in the Hockomock League. Sophomores Sarah Hardy and Cassie Clark have been the top finishers in the track meets. Anna Krachy, Katie Takyanagi, Jess Zelfand, and Lindsey Villani have also been tallying up the points on the Varsity Team. The girls team has been training very hard, and their strong wins have put the other teams on their guard in the Hockomock League.

Led by the expertise and talent of nine senior players, the Sharon Field Hockey team had an outstanding season. Teamwork, scoring, defense: it all came together. The highlight of the season was when Amanda Houston scored the one goal to upset strong North Attleboro team, 1-0. Sophomore, Jennie Chiller, let few goals by her goalie pads and looks to be an excellent player to keep an eye on. Congratulations to Coach Decas, who coached the winning team this season, with usual wisdom and support.

The Sharon High football team reentered the Hockomock League this year under the direction of new head coach Roland James. The Eagles ended up with a 1-9 record, but were able to be competitive with several teams in the tough Hockomock League. By staying close to their opponents, the football team was able to prove to many, most importantly themselves, that they were capable of competing on a varsity level. With many graduating seniors, the Eagles will be looking for their young players to be the backbone for the years to come. We look forward to some real aggressive play next season.

The girls varsity basketball team is in great shape to take the Hockomock League. The tremendous tri-captains, Lauren Santoli, Chrissy Connors, and Dana Dershewitz, are returning from last year's varsity squad and are ready to win. Senior Amanda Houston and underclassmen Jen Noble, Nicole Sullivan, Jessica Shelton, and Lindsay Schantz are providing excellent support to the team's play. Mr. Allman hopes to have a rewarding season, and Santoli's four year varsity contribution should also be noted.

Although the '95-'96 season has only just begun, and despite the numerous injuries at the start of the season, the Eagles are holding their own. The best showing of their talent came during the extremely close battle against North Attleboro at home, which left ESPN shocked. With Jeff ''Shaggy'' Schoman's shooting, Duane Dunn's acrobatics, Steinberg's three-point shot, Sigal's hustle, and Noble's speed and court leadership, the seniors lead the team. The Eagles have shown a potential to be a threat in the solid Hockomock division, and it will be interesting to see how the season unfolds.

gymnastics

Gymnastics Team: clockwise from top middle: Alyson Tobin, Stacy Titlebaum, Beth Mindes, Jodi Kraus (Captain), Becca Rudnick, Liz Loring (Captain), Kerri Pickering, Nicole Cohen. Center Karen Horan (coach)

Despite the small size of this year's gymnastics team, they have proven that it is quality not quantity that counts. So far the team is in second place in the Hockomock League and hope to qualify for the sectionals. The team is led this year by seniors Jodi Kraus and Liz Loring, both league all stars.

This year the Sharon High wrestling team returned seven varsity seniors to lead the team. Coaches Rob O'Donnell and Joe Spruce received exceptional play from seniors Adam Watstein, Adam Winkleman, Jon Walker, Nate Olken, and co-captains Rory Bloom, Dave Kaul, and Eric Sonis. The Eagles had a solid start this year putting seven wrestlers in the finals of the Scituate Tournament and winning overall as a team. Although they are missing a few varsity spots, the Eagles should place in the top three at the sectionals and make several individual contributions at the State Tournament in Wayland.

The Sharon High School track teams reached new heights, including the winter track component. With a phenomenal record this season, both winter teams are well out in front of all their competition. Under the leadership of seniors Sean Hawkins, Scott Bluestein, James Klos, Jeff Dell, Tony Baldassari, Karolina Zatz and Dana Brundage, the team has performed to great advantage. The snowy weather never deterred the team, but provided them with the excellent conditions for "snow runs." With the majority of the team participating in spring track the Eagles should continue to find success.

Not pictured: Erica Epro.

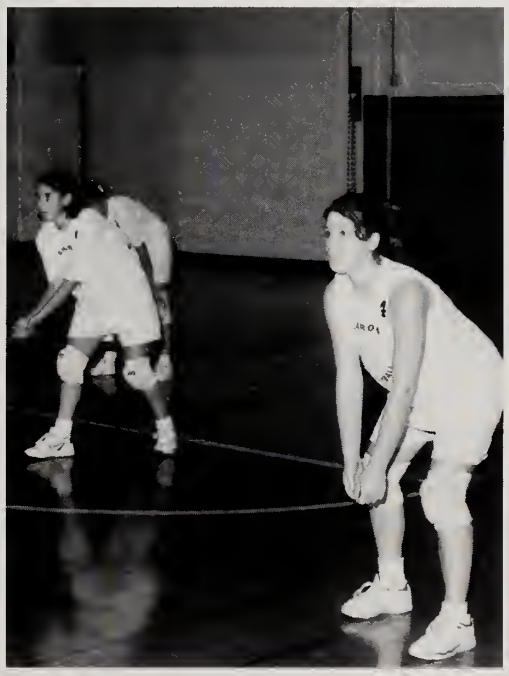

Despite a rough start, the volleyball team has managed to pull through with flying colors this fall. Co-captains, Brette Richards and Elizabeth Stavis led the team this year, Brette from the sidelines with an injured ankle and Liz on the court with lots of spirit. Erica Epro and Stephanie Penn were a great asset to the team with their incredible setting ability. Faith Levine also helped the Eagles with her super-spikes, while Jen Whalen and Rayna Freedman racked up the points with their great serves. Throughout it all, Tamara Buffonge was always nearby, keeping score and cheering us on in her role as team manager. Overall, this second year team played with great enthusiasm, lots of spirit, and camaraderie.

swim team

The swim team was off to a great start this year in their new league, the Bay Colony Conference, with wins over Taunton and Blue Hills. Despite several close losses they kept their characteristic spirit throughout the season. Captains Dan Gale, diving with spectacular style in every meet, and Ingrid Bruns, with a winning backstroke, led the team of mostly underclassmen. Seniors Amanda McGregor, Phil Segaloff, Katrin Andreola, and Dawn Sherlock proved to be additional invaluable assets. The team looks forward to an excellent season next year under the leadership of several strong underclassmen, and wish Coach Lampert the best of luck.

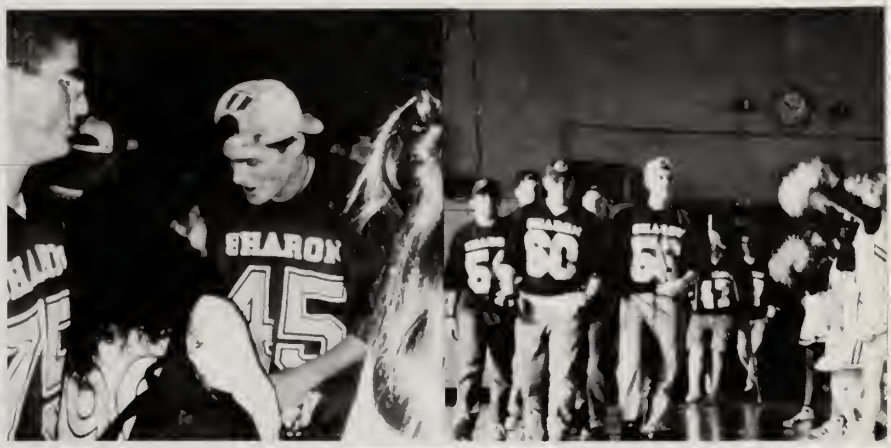
halloween

The Halloween activities this year were a change from last year, as not only was there an assembly but it went extremely well. Spirit was high among both students and teachers. Whether students were being pushed along the halls seemingly dead in a wheelbarrow, or jogging around the halls with the Secret Service, the halloween spirit was apparent everywhere. The senior class cleaned up at the assembly winning eighteen awards, including the best cartoon character for "Pooh and the Gang", best group for the 'The Zodiac' and "The Mariott Ladies, and best fairytale for "The Disney Diva's". Underclass winners inlcuded "The Alphabet Blocks", "African Native", and "The Woman".

homecoming

Homecoming 1995 inaugurated a new tradition. The float competition was replaced with a throne competition. The senior class won the competition with their golden throne adorned with an eagle. Following the presentation of roses from the senior football members, the queens, kings, and courts were announced. Freshman queen Priscilla Williams and king Dan Gorsky, Sophomore queen Lisa Robinson and king Ravi Mehta, and Junior queen Catherine Sullivan and king Josh Keimach, awaited the announcement of the senior queen and court. Dana Dershewitz and Ken Chavez, Nancy Gauchman and Mitch Ulman, Becky Gauchman and Adam Watstein, Naseema Shafi and Roee Rubinstein, congratulated the announcement of queen Erika Hochberg and her escort Joel Allen. The football team made their usual valient and honorable effort and all in all, the day would not soon be forgotten.

thanksgiving pep rally



The 1995 Fall Pep Rally got off to a fast paced start with an exhibition of the gymnasts breathtaking skills. This was followed by an upbeat display of the cheerleading talent. After the underclassman football players ran on to the gym floor, the senior players were introduced enthusiastically by Andy Mann, Eric Sonis, and Steve Rubin. As each senior proudly crossed the parquet cheers rang out. The senior girls skit was without a doubt the best ever. Singing to the tunes of television favorites, the girls reminded the boys of their talents. The pep rally ended with the beat of the ``music-less'' dancers.

the wiz

With two almost sold-out shows, the Sharon High drama department put on one of their best shows ever. The blizzard-like conditions could not prevent the two almost sold-out shows of "The Wiz" from being performed. The Scarecrow, the Tinman, the Lion, witches, the Wiz herself, two Dorothys and the rest of the incredibly large cast eased energetically down the yellow brick road with the talented Yellow Brick Road men. A round of applause and a standing ovation to the cast, crew, Mrs. Dennis, and Mrs. Rubinstein.

BOSTON
GARDEN

We shared the days of laughter
We shared the days of sorrow.
And in the morning after
We shared a bright tomorrow.
Side by side we'll always stand
Spirits flying high.
Long as I can hold your hand
We'll never say goodbye.

We walked the halls of learning
And served a proud tradition.
The flame of truth is burning
To clarify our vision.
Look at how the future gleams
Gold against the sky.
Long as I can share your dreams
We'll never say goodbye.

There's little to be sure of
But we will last forever.
For now we know the pure love
We feel when we're together.
Then if someday we shall part
We will not say die.
Long as you are in my heart
We'll never say goodbye.

Good Luck Class of '96!
